

improving the quality of life for refugees by preparing them for a productive future through educating children and building new skills among adults;

Whereas often and whenever possible, programs implemented by the International Rescue Committee are ultimately turned over to the refugees themselves after they have been well trained by International Rescue Committee staff and volunteers;

Whereas the International Rescue Committee was founded in 1933 as a nonsectarian response to the increasing horrors of Nazi Germany;

Whereas as the need for humanitarian assistance expanded, so has the International Rescue Committee's commitment to refugees;

Whereas throughout the world, from Bosnia to Somalia, from Cambodia to El Salvador, the International Rescue Committee continues to aid refugees with medical assistance, shelter, food, and skills-training;

Whereas the International Rescue Committee also helps in repatriation or resettlement to assist refugees in starting their life anew;

Whereas in its sixty years of service, the International Rescue Committee has not only provided for victims of brutality and for those suffering from natural disasters with services essential for survival and the means to rebuild their lives, but also has given them reason to have renewed optimism in the compassion and goodwill of their fellow human beings; and

Whereas October 15, 1993, the sixtieth anniversary of the founding of the International Rescue Committee, is an appropriate day on which to give recognition to the International Rescue Committee for its great humanitarian endeavors: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate (the House of Representatives concurring), That on the occasion of the sixtieth anniversary of the founding of the International Rescue Committee, the Congress hereby recognizes the International Rescue Committee for its great humanitarian endeavors.

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. MONTGOMERY, recognized Mr. LANTOS and Mr. BEREUTER, each for 20 minutes.

After debate,

The question being put, viva voce,

Will the House suspend the rules and agree to said concurrent resolution?

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. MONTGOMERY, announced that two-thirds of the Members present had voted in the affirmative.

So, two-thirds of the Members present having voted in favor thereof, the rules were suspended and said concurrent resolution was agreed to.

A motion to reconsider the vote whereby the rules were suspended and said concurrent resolution was agreed to was, by unanimous consent, laid on the table.

Ordered, That the Clerk notify the Senate thereof.

¶118.10 200TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE U.S. CAPITOL

Ms. NORTON moved to suspend the rules and agree to the following concurrent resolution (H. Con. Res. 146):

Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate concurring),

SECTION 1. USE OF CAPITOL BUILDING AND GROUNDS.

The Commission on the bicentennial of the United States Capitol (hereinafter in this resolution referred to as the "Commission") may use the Capitol building and grounds on October 23, 1993, or on such other date as the Speaker of the House of Representatives and the President pro tempore of the Senate may jointly designate, for events to commemorate the 200th anniversary of the laying of the cornerstone of the Capitol.

SEC. 2. TERMS AND CONDITIONS.

The events referred to in section 1 shall be free of admission charge to the public and arranged under conditions to be prescribed by the Architect of the Capitol and the Capitol Police Board.

SEC. 3. EVENT PREPARATIONS.

(a) STRUCTURES AND EQUIPMENT.—Subject to the approval of the Architect of the Capitol, the Commission is authorized to erect upon the Capitol grounds such stages, sound amplification devices, and other related structures and equipment as may be required for the events referred to in section 1.

(b) ADDITIONAL ARRANGEMENTS.—The Architect of the Capitol and the Capitol Police Board are authorized to make any such additional arrangements, including the use of voluntary and uncompensated staff and services, as may be required to carry out the events referred to in section 1.

(c) REPRESENTATIONS.—The Architect of the Capitol shall take such actions as may be necessary to ensure that sponsors of the events referred to in section 1 do not make representations that such sponsorship in any way constitutes an endorsement by the Federal Government.

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. MONTGOMERY, recognized Ms. NORTON and Mr. PETRI, each for 20 minutes.

After debate,

The question being put, viva voce,

Will the House suspend the rules and agree to said concurrent resolution?

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. MONTGOMERY, announced that two-thirds of the Members present had voted in the affirmative.

So, two-thirds of the Members present having voted in favor thereof, the rules were suspended and said concurrent resolution was agreed to.

A motion to reconsider the vote whereby the rules were suspended and said concurrent resolution was agreed to was, by unanimous consent, laid on the table.

Ordered, That the Clerk request the concurrence of the Senate in said concurrent resolution.
